If you wish to sort your printer's macros into groups, this is how it works for Mainsail:

• In Mainsail's Preferences, chose the Macro-section, and switch from "Simple" to the "Expert" mode.

• Now you can create as many groups you like with the "Add Group" button at the bottom-right...
...and add the macros from the main list to them. And you can set the button-colors, and if you like you can also hide buttons during idle/pause/printing:

• To finish-editing a group you have to scroll fully down, to get to the "Close" button at the bottom-right:
